

CHICAGO SUN-TIMES

50¢ CITY & SUBURBS • 75¢ ELSEWHERE | LATE SPORTS FINAL | FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 2007 | SNITTY | 60° 47° Page 54  | Let's get into it.

Some lookalike contestants were better than others at the "Ditkaween" event at Mike Ditka's Oakbrook Terrace restaurant (above), and the former Bears coach selected Don Fueling (below, left) as the best of the bunch. | RICH HEIN~SUN-TIMES

Pick a Ditka? It's no contest

It's a good thing Gene Upshaw wasn't anywhere near Mike Ditka's restaurant in Oakbrook Terrace on Thursday.

Upshaw, head of the NFL Players Association, has enough trouble dealing with one Ditka. His head would have been spinning as WMVP-AM (1000) conducted a "Ditkaween" promotion. Listeners to the "Waddle and Silvy" show showed up in their best Ditka costumes.

More than a dozen contestants took part and were treated to a free dinner by Da Coach.

Ditka then picked Don Fueling as the winner. Fueling won a high-definition DVD player and a Slingbox.

Sun-Times staff